

As I enter this day, by the power of Your Spirit, and for Your glory, would You show me deep within that it is Your desire for all things everywhere to be shaped and influenced by Your rule and reign (Your Kingdom) . . . please start with me in all I do and say today.

Father, show me how I can advance Your Kingdom and display Your glory through prayer and countercultural acts of love and kindness, caring for the communities of which I am a part and the wider world.

Lord Jesus let me love and serve the person before me, seeking to see them as You see them (loved and cherished) and give me opportunities to speak and display Your lifegiving gospel to them.

Holy Spirit, fill me with God's grace (His divine help) for the day ahead.

I give You permission to change my plans and reorder my priorities, that I may serve You well and see Your Kingdom come.

All for Your glory. Amen
